Announcing the Second Amendment Protection Act 2008

Representative Timothy Bearden, District 68, will announce to the world his Second Amendment Protection Act of 2008.

Rep. Bearden requested that, if possible, hundreds of people appear before the steps of the state capitol building in Atlanta, Georgia for a rally and press conference.

Rep. Bearden quote.
" I hope to see ALL of you there. This is nothing less than your chance to protect your rights and the true words of our Constitution!"

Stand up and protect your rights to protect yourself.

Second Amendment Protection Act (SAPA) rewrites the firearms laws of Georgia.

- It removes conflicting, confusing and overly restrictive laws.
- It includes the Car Carry Bill from the 2007 session.
- It stops capers like Mayor Bloomberg's straw purchasers.
- It repeals the Public Gathering law.
- It requires timely issuance of firearms licenses.
- It includes the Katrina Bill.

Do you have a Georgia Firearms License (GFL)?
Law abiding citizens with a GFL,
It is currently illegal to carry (concealed or open carry) in a restaurant that sells alcohol.

There is a penalty of 20 years in prison for carrying near a MARTA bus stop.

There are currently several park bans.

Georgia has more places off limits to carry than any state in the nation.

The shooter at that the Omaha Mall didn't care that
It was a GUN FREE ZONE.

From the Hunters to housewives, joggers in the park,
Those who use public transportation or going to the mall.
