FINAL JUDGMENT

The Court previously ruled on the Parties’ cross motions for summary judgment in its Order [Doc. 55]. In the Order, the Court dismissed Plaintiffs’ claims except for Plaintiff Raissi’s Privacy Act claims. The Court determined that there was a Privacy Act violation and left open for trial the issues of which Defendant(s) is(are) liable for the violation and what the remedies for the violation should be. The Parties have submitted a “Stipulation to Resolve Open Issues”.

Consistent with the Stipulation, it is therefore ORDERED that:

1. Judgment for damages in amount of $1,000 be entered against MARTA and in favor of Raissi.
2. MARTA is DIRECTED to expunge Raissi's SSN from its records.
3. This case be terminated.
